

We are the Success of the Season. No Mistake== WHY?

Because we have dug a well 270 feet deep where we get pure artesian water, fresh and free to all our customers, and we invite them when they wish a drink of pure water to come to our store. Come one, come all, it's fresh and pure. We cannot furnish you with whiskey; but we can give you the purest and best water you ever drank, FREE.

Because we have built a wagon yard and house in the rear of our store for our customers who live at a distance to sleep and keep their teams at night. We have troughs for 95 horses, mules and oxen to feed in, and a hydrant in the lot where you can get your water without any trouble. Sol bring your pine knots and cover alongo and we will furnish a good comfortable shelter for you to sleep under, pay you the very highest price for your cotton, chickens, eggs and all produce, sell you goods cheaper than any one. We bought them before the advance in prices, paid cash for them, got the discounts, and do sell them cheaper than any other merchant in town. Our wagon yard and house free, and we want everybody to come and put up in it.

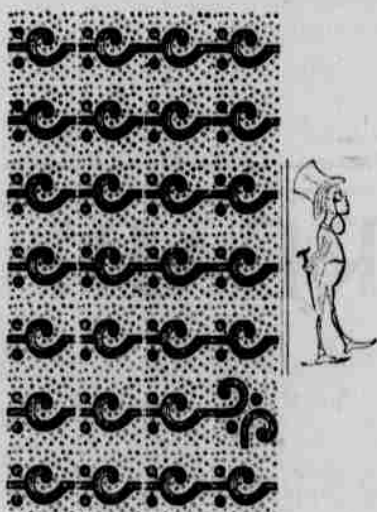

A trip in time may save a half dozen later on, i. e., we are closing out our stock of ladies jackets at 25 per cent below cost. We have too large a stock of them and are determined to sell them, hence this sacrifice. They are the greatest bargains ever offered in any place; nobby styles, truly beautiful, they are going fast, so come early and get first choice.

We have 500 pieces of pretty design, fast colors calicoes, which we are selling for 5c per yard—selling elsewhere for 6 and 6 1/4 cents—we bought them before the advance in cotton goods and are selling all our goods at low price cotton figures.

A store is valued for what it sells and how it sells. We aim to keep you in touch with the neatest and best dry goods. Our fall and winter stock is in its prime, so come and help gather the good things that are always on hand with us.

DIED.

MARRY—Jessie Maory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mabry was born Jan. 21st 1883 joined the Methodist Church in 1894, and died near Shrock, Miss., Sept. 18, 1895.

Little Jessie was a lovely character, affectionate herself, she seemed to awake in others a kindred sentiment, and to take hold upon the hearts of all who knew her; with a faint "good bye" upon her lips she went home to God.

Death deals at random, right and left, and flowers fall as well as oaks, and so little Jessie blooms no more in the garden of earth, but has been transplanted by God's own hand to the radiant garden of the skies. Human imagination will sometimes hover over the little form that once held her spirit, and shudder that she was taken so ruthlessly from the warm clinging folds of mother's love and wrapped in the icy elements of the grave. But it is not true, for she was only taken from the embrace of earthly love to be wrapped again in the warm bosom of the Master. It is hard to give her up, but what a blessed thought it is to know that she is safe up yonder, and when death's hand deals other strokes, she will wait at Heaven's gate and welcome her dear one's home. May the tendrils of affection twined about her little form bind her family as with unbreakable chains to the shores of heaven. Remember!

While 'tis a blessing to live
'Tis a blessing to die,
And the best of this world is,
Its path to the sky.

AFFLICTED FOR YEARS.

Mr. R. B. Goodman, Marietta, Ga., says: "I was troubled with rheumatism, which the doctors called sciatica, for a number of years, doctoring with everything I could hear of, without benefit, until I commenced with Dr. King's Royal Gelmetuer, which cured me sound and well. I was at times for several months so I could not walk at all. I have now been thoroughly well of it for four years, and think there is no medicine that can equal Gelmetuer." New package, large bottle, 108 doses, $1. For sale by Harvey & Roby.
